

Who could paint a picture in so much a richness and glory?

Who could see the vision and go on and really tell the story?

Who could understand all the power and the might of God?

Who could put a brush stroke for perfect brilliance and beauty not odd?

.

Who could paint a rainbow with all the love of every colour?

Who could take the pain to really appreciate all the suffering?

Who could follow Jesus and see him captured in true light?

Who could put a pen to paper and pay him so just right?

.

Who could learn and like to appreciate the beauty of art?

Who could sign their name and go on and live in the dark?

Who could make love with a wench or just float on down the river?

Who could do it all over again and the rich the right giver?

.

Who could mix and sort the paint to get the colour oh so right?

Who could paint it perfectly and as good as something you write?

Who could understand the meaning of perfection and pure sight?

Who could heal the blind and see colours brilliant white?

.

Who could dream a dream and paint a picture so all could see?

Who could make love to a woman and give birth to you and me?

Who could bow down and worship God the mighty creator?

Who could be a greater artist than God and who really is the greatest?

.

Who could tell the meaning of the truth and paint a picture in rhyme?

Who could write the name of the artist and stop the crime in time?

Who could live to understand the knowledge of all the work?

Who could be the artist who wrote poems lines after line in a word?

.

Signed,

God and Dad