

Prince of peace, with plenty and perfection,
King of creation that has natural perplexing;
Beauty all around the world about,
Brilliant in mind and thought detection.

Love, faith and grace all kindly thoughts,
With hope for the future and Godly selection;
Peace, plenty and perfection, joy evermore,
Lawfully willing to abide in his kingdom.

God shows His kindness, to all who will see,
Godliness and goodness, to all who will plea;
Great is the expectation for Him to return,
To show us the worth of all that we earn.

Lovingly knowing its life past ourselves,
Where eternity waits like books on the shelf;
Life ever after and love everlasting,
God is the bearer of truth overabounding.

Peace in our minds with plenty to come,
Peace and perfection, our earthly sum;
World without end and world without war,
Perfect peace for all with plenty to ensure.

Peace for the plenty and perfection of creation,
Endurance and suffering at the cost of one nation;
All to enjoy to employ, to implore for an empire,
Peace coming for ever after and love everlasting.

Signed,

Freedom and Justice
