

In the eternal realms of life and love,
Is the infinite flow of eternal water;
Where is eternal life is you heavenly portion,
God is in control and has the resins of perfection.

The heavenly realms of the water of life,
Is a drink from the spring which is an eternal fountain;
Life that flows from the source for all heavenly purposes,
Into the hearts and mind of lives that simply love him.

For goodness leads mercy into the hearts and souls,
Of minds who thirst for living water, which gives life to the soul,
Each heart and mind and soul needs the gift of life;
Which flows fast and freely through him who has the keys,

So now as it flows and appears in the mind of love;
The gift of God which is in us all flows out from above.
For the goodness of God is in the water of life,
Which is free and now flows from love.

Then this water of life becomes the water of life,
As the water of life is flowing from the mind of God;
As the mind of God is love, the water of life is to live,
As the pristine beauty of the water of life is eternal life.

Sure the gift of grace appears through the water of life,
Fastly flowing freely into the needy lives;
Where the heart of the water of life is a passion,
As a faith to give the water of life to all.

Signed,

The Purest Need
