

God is the greatest and God knows all,
To the humble and kind, the tall and the small;
The beauty is found really here there on earth,
When from heaven God came to show us His worth.

The best is upon us if in Him do we trust,
Have faith in the word and in that we really must;
The truth is the way that life gives us strength,
To obey in the things we do to have God's great gift.

God knows all in His own most omnipotent heart,
His mind is the wisest and his brain is quite smart;
In fact God knows best in any given situation,
If we will only acknowledge Him and pray so He'll fathom.

So I ask now to God to show us His love,
As he sends out a song on the wings of a dove;
How sweet it is still to always do know,
That God knows all and we must stay with the flow.

God knows all, I will say it again,
Unto him will I lean and unto Him I depend;
The beauty is seen clearly when God has the lead,
Through the eye of faith in all that we see.

God knows all, I can hardly understand,
How lovely the weather and picture so grand;
So whether you believe or trust all in Him,
Will depend on the things that He has for you.

Signed,

God Bless Us All.