

Too fussy to be perfect;
Enough to not worry but reflect;
Too fussy to be perfect,
Must be right or wrong to detect.

Too fussy to be perfect,
Not good enough to be God;
Too fussy to be perfect,
Always looking for someone odd.

Too fussy to be perfect,
Brilliant enough to understand;
Too fussy to be perfect,
To live and love the country land.

Too fussy to be perfect,
When I only need a delicacy;
Too fussy to be perfect,
Like eating fruit and relishing.

Too fussy to be perfect,
When holiness is only religious;
Too fussy to be perfect,
And all aboriginals are indigenous.

Too fussy to be perfect,
As lovely as real is;
Too fussy to be perfect,
When ideally the world is his.

Signed,

Not totally Perfect
