

Mountain heart, God in spirit, Men with fear, people who fear it; Many a man, stand so tall, Mountain men the earth a ball.

It comes from within and goes deep down,
Not just a hill or a rise in their ground;
Dawning in new ages, mind, body, spirit,
God is the heart, mountain men fear it.

Mountain heart valley down low,
A place where you've been ,a place yet to go;
Deep in the spirit the mountains with snow,
Drumming like the wind, time in a the flow.

The word as a sword the world all going,
God in his greatness now all men knowing;
To keep to the rhythm and balance with style,
All books of the bible to believe in each isle.

Many a man was taken to test,
And fought with their God to prove who is best;
Rocky crest outcrops, crags at the top,
The nest of the eagle, not et time to stop.

A quest from above, the game of true love,
With mountain men heart as soft as a dove;
Mountain heart passion, now left to ration,

The romance like rolling the stone.
