

I base my decisions on the truth and the facts,

So I'm sure I'll be sure to stay on the tracks;

A well trained mind flies out over and above,

And I'm going to heaven because I believe in God's love.

All the right answers are certain to appear,

Because I've got to get where I'm going and the runway is clear;

With certainty memories are better because money goes to others,

When life is at stake we need our sisters and brothers.

I know I was born because I'm now living proof,

My father and mother made me and the grave has no roof;

So the certainty is in the middle and the riddle is room,

As much as the floor needs a sweep or vacuum or broom.

Everything costs something and money is never free,

Time is all I need remembering kids climb a tree;

So certainty of anything can make nothing certain,

And I'm certainly sure that Mum draws a curtain.

If Dad was the blind man I'd be certain of a miracle,

And the one I look at most is me in the mirror;

If certainty was never sure there would be trouble to pay,

And the sun never goes out and it's always somewhere day.

If it's cloudy and night you won't see a thing,

Unless the light is on the inside then joy it will bring;

The uncertainty of hope must reward in the end,

As love is the greatest and in faith something must.

Signed,

Something Must.
