

High there someone special I would like to invite you in,

To my kingdom with the free down completely without sin;

It's a perfect invitation which you must accept to come to now,

That you would learn the happiness of the pleasure of just how.

It's how you clean the windows and tie you're laces up,

And dress up in a suit and lead the horse to win the cup;

You see you have the reigns to the kingdom in heaven's sky,

Where all you have to do is look freedom clearly in the eye.

For when it is all said and done you can't work for the grace of God,

But must just sit back and listen and understand all you each is odd;

For the treasures are enormous and the price is worth the cost,

Of the kingdom and the freedom in discovering the lost.

So now I say you are sinner are you worth the grace of God,

I know you better really believe it for cross was not odd;

But the answer in the forgiveness and confessing all the wrong,

That you might live forgetting all the stress and mess to live long.

For now the love of the kingdom is a freedom not to live without,

And not to deny or forsake and certainly neither doubt;

Now the beauty of behavior is nearly the smartest thing on earth,

Only beaten by the understanding that you're eternal like is worth.

Now I know it's good to know when you say no to the wrong,

And then all the angels sing to you from heaven's loving song;

As the perfection now has overtaken the things that sin so wrong,

When with the almighty creator you learn to love long.

Signed,
