

Deeper than the ocean is the depth of my love,

Higher than the heavens is where God lives high above;

Further than the stars and greater distance than the sun,

Taller than the mountains and better and my love for one.

More beautiful than the river of life is the depth of my love,

More picturesque than a waterfall and as brilliant as God above;

Harder to fathom than all the miracles on earth could be,

More wonderful and fantastic than the magnificence of being free.

More subtle than a moon beam that shines through the night air,

More dazzling than a light show of distant galaxies so far;

More harmonious than the music of sweet songs sung in tune,

More peaceful than a lake is the depth of love in me.

More brightly shining than a single solitude royal diamond,

More characteristic of my personality that all the things I said;

More believable in understanding than the knowledge of a University,

Is the depth of my love and the depth of love in the universe.

More tranquil than the worries of life all floating flying away,

More interesting than all the money in the bank at the end of the day;

More greater in mystery than the thunder and lightning strike,

More achievable and acceptable than everyone on their own bike.

More kindness and goodness than greatness and godliness,

More decisions for the making than in business for holiness;

More thoroughly comprehending than information's sheer delight,

More is the depth of love of wisdom in God's eternal life.
