

Everything is beautiful in its own way,

Or at least that's how the song goes along each day;

Nothing on the other hand is meaningless,

With something to tempt and please do pay.

Meaningfulness can be considered variously,

As sometimes things happen so carelessly;

And still fall into place in time and due course,

When in black and white the answer is a grey source.

Disease of the mind was both hard and easy,

Giving meaningfulness its name in schizophrenia;

But the joy and the gift of life in true living,

Is the peace that is supplied by meaningfulness.

Meaningfulness might be to be king of creation,

Or double doubled in whether both heaven and hell;

It can be a passion of romance and understanding,

Or the perfect partner you forever wish well.

Meaningfulness is like the life of a river,

The right and left side both paradise giver;

And the place we call home and feel safe,

Is a comfortable place to sleep and to save.

Meaningfulness is like winning and beating,

All those nice things that dwell when we're eating;

And the truth of love and life is the living,

For what makes best the first things the giving.
