

Early to bed early to rise,
Make us healthy, wealthy and wise;
Isn't it profound the wisdom that we seek,
The simple fact we ask, and only when were weak.

They say that he who is humblest is greatest of them all,
Which depends a lot on giving and helping out the small;
If it's that we are in trouble and need some wise words on life,
Then that helps us solve our problems and gets us out of strife.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush,
So you'll need the wisdom of Solomon to decide where to pursue and push;
It's not that Gods not good but sometimes lets us down,
To turn our selfish wants to another's needs in town.

A rolling stone fathers no moss,
And a man sitting idle is vulnerable to loss;
Like when we are planning things and country the cost,
Ensuring to succeed in life while recuperating the lost.

People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones,
Like all those annoying people whose vindictiveness goes deep to the bones;
So many times where could out on a limb,
Wondering what to do and all things seem grin.

We will fight them on the beaches we will not give in,
Those greedy hungry cowards who think they can win;
I will not be beaten I will endeavour to endure,
That there's wisdom in waiting, not fighting a war.

Signed,

The victory belongs to the lord
