

The fountain of youth is the water eternal life,
Providing the rejuvenation and preservation of wife;
The case of its source amidst God and the church,
For all those who seek and endeavour and search.

The reason for living is one holy thing,
The joy of the resurrection and life it did bring;
With the love of our God and his one perfect plan,
Provides the beautiful creation of the whole earth so grand.

The words rhyme in flow and bluebirds over rainbows,
To places far told of Gold streams with reindeers;
Picturesque scenery of mountains to the sea,
The fountain of youth rivers waterfall to see.

Draw from its source with the cup of the Lord,
The holy most Grail to the voice of the sword;
Understand the reign of the life giving water,
The sweetness of clarity and pristine re-order.

The miracle works through the faith in a sip,
As the water wets your mouth by your lip;
The tasteless magnificence of the fresh quenching liquid,
Provides life giving newness of salvation eternal.

Like an infinite star you inherit lease of life,
To clear all your blemishes and anxieties and strife;
And as you discover your life never ending,
You will float like a drift wood on a river always bending.
