

One life to live, to have and to give
One life to use and be satisfied with;
One life to know to keep and to cherish;
One life one extra when one life will perish.

One life that have been one life to come,
One life now finished one life too dumb;
One life forever one life for good,
One life, one extra as the earth spinning should.

One life, inclined to give and not take,
One life designed to live and to make;
One life eternal with money to spend,
One life one extra, in need of a friend.

One life too perfect, one life to shine,
One life befriended one life is mine;
One life so sorry one life so sad,
On life one extra amended to be glad.

On life one lifestyle, one day at a time,
One life one mention of what's on my mind;
One life, one correction one time and place,
One life, one extra to live on in space.

One life one marvel, sorted to all,
One life, one master, one God and his call;
One life, one nearly one ready to die,
One life, one extra one birth born to try,

Signed,

If two were together
