What a love, oh what a man, His heart his love an eternal plan; His lord his life was to follow thee, So what could that possibly mean to me.

My god, my heart, my love, my joy, I've known his love since still a boy; A special kind of perfect touch, Like a guarantee of life so much.

How could I possible talk to Peter, I can imagine him an enormous eater; At least I know just where my feet are, Like on a highway in a car sitting on a seat so far.

It's funny how we think of it,
This long lost friend of mine;
Peter always perfect but only when the weathers fine,
Thank you Peter thank you God, I'm pleased that I can dine.

I know I shouldn't deny you lord, There's something in your heart; But I do tend to go on a bit, And really I'm not all that smart.

The problem is I love you most, And that's really not good enough for God; The fact that fools are everywhere, Means that there's something about honor you must.

Signed,

Peter -	Parsifal	Enter	nrices
reter -	raisiiai		บบอธอ

Pretty Personal