

Charisma is an attraction of people with beautiful features,

By the personality in the face of the kind hearted human creatures;

But the people look at the person whose shing face has got it,

And they dream and drool and wish that they themself had it.

Now the person is important and it is a Godly kind of attribute,

To all of the people who work hard with bright natural aptitude;

For the psychology of the mind is a charismatic personality,

Which charisma portrays as a beautiful brilliant normality.

Charisma is great thing to behold in the mind of the others,

When the beholder is gifted but wants to share it with lovers;

Lovers who appreciate all the reason of this gift of God,

Who have read hundreds of books and the mind is not so odd.

If charisma is a natural beauty you have to look hard to see,

Then it's like a sailing boat out on the waters blown along the sea;

For when the sun is on the water it's the most loveliest thing,

In the reflection of charismatic mind and perfections face to think.

Then the change of the thought is done the most excellent way,

That charisma can possess your mind all throughout every day;

And when you are tired and bored turn to bed for the reward,

That you renew you're strength for the next time to charisma ensure.

So don't let this frighten and enlighten you as hard to live up to,

But pray and study and work hard for this intellectual spirits charm;

For charisma has a way of winning hearts and souls for the years of old,

But be weary and careful that your love is for God and not the gold.
