

Beautiful as it is with life so sweet and all full of bliss,

Love gives enhancement between a man and woman with a kiss;

And the wonder and establishment of things all right all the time,

Pays the creation of poetry with enhancement as the name of rhyme.

Like the quality of the paper and words that give it enhancement,

Following down the page on lines in a way that reveals enhancement;

So God give us this blessing and choose to live the life without crime,

As the war of the roses is enhanced by the youth of our prime.

And the marvel of the mercy of the plenty of grace that's been,

Is coming down the mountain in trickling creeks over snows white scene;

And the love that's in the heat and the flowing words from mouth,

Heads through all the seasons as the oceans breeze seems to blow south.

As the mystery of enhancement as aroused and tempted to please,

And the beauty in the pleasure of the improvements benefits the awe;

Like loving living God's creation is simple lustful self indulgence,

As we all seek for ourselves the glory of enhancement instead of suffering.

And I love life in the heavens where all the birds take to fly away,

As the flight up over the hills leaves you high from enhancement at the day;

And we joy in the fulfillment of the pleasure of the experience,

With the always constant reminder that we must maintain enhancement to be fit.

As I dream of distant horizons and the world goes into deep despair,

The earth is filled with plenty but really enhancement is what we care;

And all the creatures marvel in the splendor of all our human affairs,

As the brightness of enhancement is overwhelming in trying to own our shares.

Signed,

United we stand. Divided we fall
