

Love is the dawning,

Another day ahead;

Love is the morning,

And getting out of bed.

Love is to find a friend,

Someone you can trust;

Love is kind and gentle,

Something of great must.

Love is going out to dinner,

Enjoying a good meal;

Love is knowing home again,

And caring how you feel.

Love is finding beauty,

In everything around;

Love is like perfection,

In all that does surround.

Love is to drive a motor car,

To wherever you may go;

Love is striving hard to find,

A place to say I know.

Love is how to learn anew,

To live and understand;

Love is for a memory,

When you see a wondrous land.

Love is nearly all creation,

From God who did make man;

Love now leads to freedom,

For the space we make and plan.

Signed,

A long Long Time
