

The light has come that all men may see,

So come out of the darkness and live with thee;

For the time is right for God's return,

When all evil men must just turn or burn.

.

The truth is found in the giving of love,

And this comes from the king who reigns from above;

Seek ye now the truth for this life,

Which keeps us safe and well out of strife.

.

It pays to know what is right from wrong,

And having faith through grace lets us live long;

For the truth is what's left or remains in our mind,

And comes from the heart by being humble and kind.

.

Now if you fear or seem to fall short,

Do not worry yourself for God won't distort;

But He keeps you near in times of trouble,

For those who fight must end up in rubble.

.

There is but one who brings life and the truth,

He is The Christ and is now all living proof;

And He reigns on high and serves all men,

Who is the God of all ages and what you seek then.

.

His part on this earth was to judge the world,

To perfect in creation that which had been hurled;

For the real truth to be known He now sits on the throne,

So enjoy this life of freedom without moan or groan.

.

Signed,

He who seeks finds.