

Fill me up to the top of the brim,

With the Holy Spirit life to win;

Feeling full means peace and passion,

And costs a fortune in money for happiness.

Feeling full is something you get from doing,

Or reading books with knowledge and knowing;

And when I'm hungry I need some food,

Which fills me up and puts me in a romantic mood.

Feeling full is the richness of all the earth's delight,

Of majestic scenery and a country's beautiful sight;

Or run or walk with music to keep you inspired,

To fill your heart with all the world's desires.

Feeling full is the love of a women who cares,

Who looks into your eyes and drinks up your stares;

She's like an ocean with an unquenchable thirst,

And he's the one making heaven eternally first.

Feeling full is the spirit of being in love,

And the truth of knowing our eternal God above;

From who fountains and springs flow infinite life,

And the one that he'll choose becomes your wife.

Feeling full is the beauty of nearly all creation,

And the purpose of rights to power a nation;

It means contentment and concentration on the one,

Who's completely devoted and goes around the sun.

Signed,

Filling up.
