

Be in a book and you are being a look,

Am I leading the words or are you just mistook?

Is a photo really worth a thousand or more words?

Do I lead a look or am I listening to the birds?

Birds fly and chirp at different points and times,

And their beauty is worth more than many of my rhymes;

They lead a look that can put you on pills or in hospital,

If you haven't read or written or done things hospitable.

I can lead a look from a memory or a photo,

If memories can be money or a grave type proto,

If I remember what's wanted in prayer and from where,

Then I might not be aware of all the other looks there.

Lead a look if you like with a smile for the camera,

Or greet people and see them if you meet the stamina;

Remember the scene and lead a look to be clean,

So the memory will be money and water mean.

Lead a look on the paper if the type is just life,

Read a book and then marry so she'll be your wife;

If she leads a look the book is better of her,

And if this book is mine then you'll know what you were.

Lead a look of a brick if you're thick enough to,

Or sandstone if it is thicker and whether a house is too;

Two looks are better than one if you're smart enough,

Now remember all you read and if the weather is hot or not.

Signed,

I might see you.
