

How old are you? Are you old enough to talk?

Or speak with your mouth or stand up and walk;

If you can read this you are old enough to write,

So give it a go and in all the challenges be right.

.

Whether onomatopoeia, simile or metaphor you will need,

Alliteration in poetry is the first letters of words you read;

To read and write any kind of literature at all,

Will depend on the size of word being big or small.

.

If letters are better are they male or female?

Like a stamp on an envelope being in the postage mail;

The world so big the earth still turning in space;

Think of your features and the look on your face.

.

The opposite sex will determine all the differences,

As naturally you can be in being single, married differently;

A husband and wife can go through paper and books,

To determine what is the same and what is the looks.

.

It's easy for me because I have written so very much,

To be experienced in writing with a good sense of touch;

If you can read and write money you will be able to print,

Or type anything you lead or like to think and get the hint.

.

Write right continuously and in a logical format and style,

Any kind of book that will look for a diligent while;

If I read and I write am I able to see what I wrote,

Or is there more on television or looking at a note.

.

Signed,

I have to pick up my own book.