

The pick and the pig or the pick of the pig,

Are you hungry enough to eat or going to be big?

Are you working on the roads or digging a hole?

Or starving to death and need to work to be whole?

The pick of the pig are you big or a bit fat?

Are you as skinny as a rake and not want to be that?

Do you think you're a pig? Will you take off your hat?

Or do you need a mattock and a shovel to bury a cat?

Are you a truck on the road and being a rig?

Or a fish caught in a net and not being a pig?

Would you pick a nice fig in a poem or a tree?

Or would you work in a shop and be a lot like me?

The pick and the pig can you tell the difference yet?

If you're greeding or reading or just having a bet?

There are many kinds of jobs that you won't pick or see,

Just try to choose one for a lifetime and will happily be.

The pick of the pigs are you rich or unhealthy?

Or watching television and thinking you'll be wealthy?

Do you eat food like the famous or starve for a fortune?

Could you be a trillionaire and go through the torture?

With ham, pork and bacon you will just love to eat,

I must remember I'm writing and not on my feet;

If you are reading and picking, just wait your turn,

Or remember your reading and not needing to earn.

Signed.

A dead one.
